

Read Across America at North End School

February 25 - March 2, 2019

Be Kind to Your Mind:  Read a Book!

Principal's Reading Challenge: Between Jan. 21 and Feb. 21 each Pre K—Grade 1 class must read 25 books and each Grade 2—Grade 4 class must read 50 books. If the challenge is met, Ms. Dyer will surprise everyone by dressing us as (hmmmmm?) and visit classrooms to hand out prizes on March 1.

Spirit Wear for Read Across America

Monday—Wear Pajamas —

Get comfy and curl up with a book

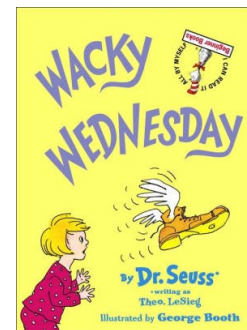

Tuesday—Wear Green

That Sam-I-Am does like Green Eggs and Ham

Wednesday—Wacky Hair Day

On Wacky Wednesday anything goes

Thursday—Wear Stripes

Dress like the Cat-in-the-Hat

Friday—Wear Black and Gold

At North End School we love to read

Early Morning Read-ins

Students are invited to come in before school to read quietly with their grade for 30 minutes.

Grade 1—Mon., Feb. 25; Grade 2—Tues., Feb. 26; Grade 3—Wed., Feb. 27;
Grade 4—Thur., Feb. 28; Fri., March 1—Snow day. 7:40-8:10 am in half of the gym (Door prizes will be awarded)

Book Bingo

Classes will have a chance to win school-wide book bingo games that will be played over the intercom system. This familiarizes students with books we have in our media center and fosters teamwork within the classroom.

Family and Friends of Teachers and Students are invited to Read at North End School

Times will be scheduled during the month of February.

As part of the celebration, teachers will invite their family and friends, or family members of students, to read to their classes. This is a great way to model the fun and importance of reading for our students.
